The current NATA Fee Schedule is available in the NATA portal. NATA reviews the Fee Schedule annually and advises all facilities of any change in advance.

There has been no change to the Grouped Service Code count (detailed in the NATA Fee Schedule) and therefore the outcome of this assessment has no impact on your annual membership fee.

Next assessment and date

This site is next scheduled for a Reassessment in August 2026.

Endorsement of reports

NATA is a signatory to the ILAC and APAC Mutual Recognition Arrangements (MRAs) which facilitates acceptance of Australian test, inspection and calibration data in overseas economies and of Australian goods in foreign markets. This signatory status allows NATA accredited facilities to issue reports with the Accredited CAB Combined ILAC MRA Mark however individual facilities must request approval to use the ILAC Mark. To apply for the Mark, please contact quality@nata.com.au.

NATA website

The NATA website (www.nata.com.au) includes information relevant to your accreditation.

As the Authorised Representative, you are the nominated point of contact with your facility and the source of formal advice regarding your facility. Your rights and responsibilities as an Authorised Representative are stated in the NATA Rules and outlined in NATA General Accreditation Criteria: Responsibilities of authorised representatives.

Please be aware that NATA enters into agreements with other parties, and these may be relevant to your accreditation(s). A full listing of agreements with other parties and the obligations and undertakings placed on NATA by the agreement in question can be viewed on the NATA website. Where NATA has an agreement with or from the Commonwealth or a State Government or where NATA is engaged in accreditation in conjunction with or on behalf of one or more other stakeholders, NATA may pass information otherwise privileged under the NATA Rules to the party concerned. Additionally, agreements may contain other obligations and undertakings of NATA which may have an impact on your facility.

On behalf of NATA, may I take this opportunity to thank you and your staff for the cooperation and hospitality during the recent assessment at your facility. If you have any questions about the information in this letter, please contact your client coordinator, Mr Anthony Swan at Anthony.Swan@nata.com.au.

Yours sincerely

for

Jennifer Evans
